Description

This Ford Puma 1.0T EcoBoost MHEV ST-Line Design Euro 6 (s/s) is a stylish and efficient compact SUV that combines sporty styling with modern hybrid technology. Engine: Powered by a 1.0-liter EcoBoost turbo petrol engine with mild hybrid (MHEV) technology, it offers a lively performance with excellent fuel efficiency and reduced emissions, perfect for city and suburban driving. Transmission: Comes with a manual gearbox, providing an engaging driving experience and full control over gear changes. Emissions: Fully compliant with Euro 6 (s/s) standards that include stop-start technology to help lower emissions and improve fuel economy. Body Style: The Puma is a 5-door SUV with a compact size, making it ideal for urban driving and tight parking spaces. Trim & Features: The ST-Line Design trim usually includes sporty exterior styling, such as distinctive alloy wheels, body accents, and features like upgraded infotainment and driver assistance systems, enhancing both style and functionality. Color: Finished in black, giving it a sleek, sporty, and modern look. Overall, the Ford Puma ST-Line Design MHEV offers a great balance of style, efficiency, and technology in a versatile package.
