Description

This Ford Ranger 3.0 TD V6 EcoBlue Wildtrak Auto 4WD Euro 6 (s/s) is a powerful and capable pickup truck designed for both work and adventure. Engine: Powered by a 3.0-liter V6 EcoBlue turbo diesel engine, offering impressive power, torque, and towing capacity suited for heavy-duty work and off-road driving. Transmission: Equipped with an automatic transmission, providing smooth, responsive shifts and a more relaxed driving experience, especially when hauling or off-road. Drivetrain: 4WD (Four-Wheel Drive), ensuring excellent traction and stability on challenging terrains and adverse weather conditions. Emissions: Fully compliant with Euro 6 standards, incorporating emissions-reducing technology suitable for modern environmental regulations. Body and Utility: The Wildtrak is a top-tier trim with features including a robust build, high-tech infotainment, safety systems, and premium interior appointments. It's designed for both practicality and comfort. Color: Finished in black, giving it a sleek and durable appearance suitable for both work and leisure. Overall, the Ford Ranger 3.0 V6 Wildtrak is an excellent choice for those needing a durable, high-performance pickup with off-road capability and modern tech features.
